Pendleton Items.

Miss Louisa Reaves, who is living with her niece, Mrs. Guss McPhail, has been made sick, but we are glad to say she is much better.

Mr. Holbert Martin made a visit to the city of Anderson on business a few days ago.

Mr. J. W. Todd, of Seneca, State Lecturer for the Knights of Honor, made quite an impressive lecture to the Pendleton Knights in the Farmers' Hall. The public was invited.

Capt. J. C. Strickling visited Anderson last Saturday.

Capt. William Simpson, who was a former resident of the Pendleton section, is now living near Dalton, Ga., on a visit to his son, Mr. J. W. Simpson, of Pendleton.

Mr. Christie Sayre, of Anderson, was in town surveying the new corporate lines of the town. The Council has ordered an election to determine the limits of the new corporation. The election will be held in April.

Mrs. Wright, Miss Harriet Maxwell's sister, is in town for a short time, very sick.

A. M. Wilson is very bogged these days. He has written up and delivered a policy for five thousand dollars in the grand old Mutual of New York to a farmer near here. — TEL. TALK.

Belton Items.

Mr. J. L. Jones, of Rock Hill, spent last week at the Belton Hotel.

Miss Mattie Brown visited friends in Anderson last week.

Messrs. Walter and Charlie Cox and Herman Pomeroy, of Belton, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Miller, of New York, who has been visiting Mrs. W. C. Clendones, left last week for Anderson.

Miss Mildred Cox, of Hona Park, is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. E. Stokes, of this place.

Mr. J. D. Campbell left Monday for Spartanburg.

Prof. W. W. Brown, of Williamston, will deliver his famous lecture on "Kissing" in the Belton Academy Friday evening, March 11. Half of the proceeds to be given to "The Lyceum." Admission—Adults, 25 cents; children, 10 cents.

We are sorry to have to chronicle the sad death of Dr. B. P. West, which occurred at his home in Princeton last Tuesday. He had practiced medicine in Greenville County for forty years, and had always been looked up to as one of the most consistent Christian men in the State. He was born Nov. 5, 1831, and lived all his life in his native County, where he had many friends who will regret to hear of his death. Prof. West, our teacher, has our deepest sympathy. — N.

Pine Grove Items.

Well, Mr. Editor, I will try one more time to write a few dots. If they escape the paper they'll not escape the waste basket.

The school at this place is in a flourishing condition. Miss Corrie Cane is our teacher, and she is a very good one.

Messrs. Nelson and Morrison, from Antreville, worshipped at Salem last Sunday.

Mr. James Vanadore and family, from the Fairdale section, have moved to the section house near the Six and Twenty bridge. We are glad to welcome them in our midst.

Mr. Charles Carroll, who has been very feeble for several months, is not any better, we are sorry to say.

Mr. Waller Hembree has been suffering with a rising on his finger, which has caused him to lose sleep for about two weeks.

Miss Mary King, from Abbeville, has been visiting friends and relatives in this community.

There wasn't any preaching at Salem last Sunday, as the preacher didn't come, but we sang some, and Mr. Eskew, from Prospect, gave us a talk. So we were not disappointed.

Rev. Mr. Allen will lecture at Salem next Saturday and Sunday.

"Old Bob," I guess you heard what "Mollie" said about us getting married, but she has you badly fooled when she tells you I didn't say anything about marrying, for I'm always saying, but the trouble is she won't say. I have always been told it was $5 fine to marry without a chance, so you see I'm left again. "Come again, Old Bob."

I will say to "E. Louis A." that the last fall I received didn't do a thing to I'm still kicking and getting ticks.

Mr. — asked his little son why did Nebuchadnezzar have to eat grass like an ox? He said "because he wouldn't do right at the table." Who can beat that?

With best wish wishes to all.
I remain the same,
"Old Jog."

The Death of a Good Woman and Her Mother.

The many friends of Mrs. Ella Shirley, the beloved wife of Mr. A. R. Shirley, will regret to hear of her death, which occurred on Wednesday, February 24th. She was sick a long time and her death was not unexpected to those who knew her best. She had that fatal disease, consumption. She was about seventy years old when she married and lived in Newberry at the time. Soon after her marriage she with her husband moved to Piedmont, where she remained until her death. She leaves a husband and two small children.

But in their sorrow they sorrow not as those who have no hope, for their loss is heaven's gain. She joined the Episcopal Church when she was about eleven years old and lived a consistent member until her death. She bore her pain with Christian patience, never murmured nor complained. She told her friends a little while before she died she always trusted in Jesus and was still trusting Jesus. She was a loving wife and a devoted mother, a kind neighbor and always met everybody with a pleasant face. She was one of those who never spoke a harmful word of anybody. She was about 27 years of age. Her remains were interred in the Piedmont Cemetery Friday afternoon.

Her mother, Mrs. Sims, passed away Monday preceding the daughter's death. Last September she spent a month with her daughter, who had been sick and never well again. She lived in Columbia at the time of her death. — A NIXON.

Episodes from Corner Creek.

Every day our people are going to Anderson today. Monday, as it is Saturday, and on Tuesday and Sunday with friends and relatives at New.

J. A. Ricketts had a chopping and quilting last Tuesday and gave the young people of this section a dance that night, and we learn they had a most enjoyable time.

We have been having some very rainy weather the past week, and since then an immense amount of fertilizers have been hauled from Honea Path, and the roads are being cut up to some extent.

Our young friend, Marvin Higby, who has been very sick for the past three weeks, we are sorry to note, is improving very slowly. We trust that he may soon get well.

The wheat in this section is looking fine, and no doubt there will be a large quantity of it made.

We presume from the way the campaign is opening up, there will be a lively one this summer.

Misses Della, Ella and Annie Ricketts, accompanied by J. N. Foxman, spent last Saturday night and Sunday with the young people of the S. S. club side.

Rhodes Merry Makers.

Manager Brezode announces to the local theatre goes that he has secured for tomorrow, Friday and Saturday nights, the highly commended Frank B. Rhodes Merry Makers Co., one of the best modern comedy repertory organizations now touring this country. The Merry Makers are composed of strictly first-class artists. They produce farce comedy, comedy drama and pantomime as only artists in the front ranks can, and anything that this Company is announced to produce at any of their performances can be relied upon as being new, novel, refined and up-to-date. The Merry Makers have won for themselves the highest praise from the press and people of Columbia, S. C., Atlanta, Ga., Montgomery, Ala., and in fact from every large city in which they have appeared throughout the South. Tomorrow night, the Company will open their engagement here with the latest metropolitan melodrama success, "The Heart of Cuba," correctly portraying the life of the insurgent and his battle for liberty. Here is what the Atlanta Constitution, of Feb. 10, says in part:

"The Heart of Cuba," a strong melodrama, was put on last night at the Columbia theatre by the Merry Makers. The play has some stirring scenes, and the climax was well and intelligently worked up. A good performance was given."

During the engagement of the Merry Makers, popular prices will prevail. Seats now on sale at H. H. Russell's grocery store.

Obituary.

The subject of this sketch was born in Anderson County about the year 1845 and died at her home in Brushy Creek Township Feb. 25, 1904. Her maiden name was Maggie Scott. As her pastor for the last two years, I can testify to her Christlike spirit and life. Though delicate in health like the Master, who seemed to forget his own sufferings in the interest of others, so was it in the life of sister Oats. She seemed to live for others and for the honor of Christ, whom she publicly claimed as her Savior twenty-five years ago. How often has her pastor felt her attendance at church that he had a personal help and hope in the life of the deceased. She daily lived the gospel of Christ. Early in life she put her children under the influence of the Sunday school. Doubtless as a result of this, the oldest child, a boy only eleven years old, gave his heart to God and was baptized into the Wesleyan Baptist Church last summer. A little over two months ago the family left Brushy and located near Corinth Church. That the short life sister Oats lived among strangers was long enough to convince her neighbors of the reality of religion, for her new neighbors said she was a Christian woman. In that community, among strangers, she never put her light under a bushel, but let it shine out so that people recognized the fact that she had been with Jesus. She left a dear husband and one little son and daughter, besides other relatives to mourn her loss. Her funeral was preached on Sunday from Rev. 14:13. "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me: Write, blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." Bereaved ones, look not upon your precious one dead, but as one who is now realizing the blessedness of that promise Christ made to Martha, "Whosoever loveth and believeth in me shall never die."

Lend a Hand.

Since the announcement made by the ministers of the city of our request for literature to distribute, the Lend-a-Hand Society has received generous offers of contributions which are greatly appreciated. We have secured a part of the office of the County Treasurer for our present quarters, and this place will be open on every Saturday from 10 to 1 o'clock for the reception and distribution of literature. On next Saturday the chairman will be glad to receive your contributions to this work at the office of the County Treasurer.

Thanks are due for the offers made by Mrs. Alston, Rev. W. T. Capers, Miss Hill, Mrs. Bonham, Mr. Geo. Townsend and others.

MISS S. ELIZABETH DIXON.

Chairman Lend-a-Hand.

Pension Notice.

There will be a meeting of the County Board of Pensions for Anderson County, on Monday, the 14th inst. The township boards are directed to hold their meetings at the usual places on the Saturday previous the 12th.

JOHN C. GANTT.

— Buyers and shippers of hay in Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio have formed a combination under the laws of Michigan to control the hay crop. The capital stock is placed at $5,000,000. Chicago is to be the headquarters, but Buffalo will have the general warehouse, as the hay is expected to be marketed in the East principally.

The Seaboard Air Line Scores Another Point.

The Seaboard Air Line has for a long time contended that it could not get its steamers south of Atlanta and north of Washington, while other lines were allowed this privilege. It should, therefore, be allowed a differential rate. This matter was taken up recently with the Southern Passenger Association, the Trunk Line Association and the Association of Virginia and the Carolina, and the Seaboard Air Line's claim for differential was allowed.

The tariffs just published by the above associations show standard facts by all lines between the North and South as well as the differential rate via the Seaboard Air Line, which rate is $3 less than that shown by other lines. The standard rate between New York and Atlanta is $24; the differential rate via the Seaboard Air Line is $21; the rate between Washington and Atlanta is $17.50; the differential rate via the Seaboard Air Line is $14.50. This differential applies between all important cities in the Southern Passenger Association's territory, the Trunk Line Association territory.

The Seaboard Air Line now has the matter up with the New England Passenger Association, looking to the publication of these differential rates in their tariff. As soon as this is granted it is understood that the Seaboard Air Line will then go to the Association of Virginia and the Carolina with a request that they would like rates from their territory. When this is done the Seaboard Air Line will have a differential on all business which it is carried for, east of the Mississippi River. — Portsmouth Star.

One More Murder in This State.

CHESTER, March 7.—Just one month ago today, the murder of Capt. J. K. Marshall was reported from this place and another, not quite so foul, however, has been committed here to-day. This morning about 8 o'clock Henry H. Marcus shot McDuffie Estes three times with a 38 Smith & Wesson, once through the abdomen, then above the hip, and lastly in the throat. Estes lingered until 5:30 o'clock this evening and died. Drs. Pryor and McConnell waited upon the wounded man and did everything in their power to save him, but to no avail.

Estes was a sober, honest, industrious young man, of 23 years of age, always attending to his business, which he had built by hard labor from a small fruit stand to a good-sized grocery and beef market. Marcus was also a sober, honest, hard working blacksmith, and was a very quiet citizen. Both were neighbors, living alongside of each other, each with their families. Both were young, well-to-do white men. They had had several misunderstandings and disputes relating to their domestic affairs, but their differences were always settled amicably. Last Saturday night a dispute arose over an account owed Estes, and this culminated in this terrible shooting affray, the result of which is death. Marcus has been lodged in jail, and claims he had to shoot in self-defence. The coroner's jury has just been empanelled, and it will be impossible to report the verdict to-night.

Another murder has been added to South Carolina's fearful and horrible record. — News and Courier.

Are now putting their best time, thought and attention to the selection of their

Spring Stock!

And the goal of success which they hope to reach is to give their customers satisfaction and full value for their money. If we fall short of this we cannot feel that we have succeeded.

Our Mr. Jones, assisted by Miss Copper, is now in the Eastern markets. He went there to get the right things at the right prices, and will be satisfied with nothing short of that. In a very short time now our Stores will be blooming with pretty, fresh Spring Goods. Already we are showing a great many little articles in the shape of—

Percales, Cheviots,
Ginghams,
Embroideries,
Laces, &c.

Big lot Lace Curtains just received. Also, a good line of Matting. These two items are always of interest to the Housekeepers.

While we are preparing for the Spring Trade we have not forgotten our Winter Stock, and try to reduce it at every opportunity. If you want Winter Goods for men, women or children come to see us. We had rather have the room than the Goods. Come to see us. Tell us what you want, and we will squeeze the price right down to the sticking notch.

One fact that we want to impress on your mind is, that Cash will go as far with us as any one. For us there is a peculiar fascination about selling for the cash. Cash transactions make and hold friends. Rake together your spare money, whether it be pennies or dollars, and come see how far they will go with us.

Best value possible for the money is what we try always to give.
